

Lakeview Bank's 2023 Legacy Award Recipients

TEJAS KOMARAGIRI, Alyssa Ettl

Tejas Komaragiri is an aspiring student with a passion for finance and economics. Tejas will be pursuing a double major in finance and economics with a minor in data science at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities.

From an early age, Tejas was drawn to the world of finance and investing, and has spent countless hours studying the stock market and financial trends. He is particularly interested in the field of investment banking and hopes to one day work for a major investment bank.

Tejas is a natural team player and possesses excellent communication and technical skills. He is always eager to collaborate with others and is known for his ability to work well under pressure. He is committed to upholding values such as integrity, honesty, respect, service, attitude and professionalism, which he believes are essential for building strong relationships and creating positive change in the world.

In addition to his academic pursuits, Tejas is an active member of his community, serving as a leader in various extracurricular activities. He is currently the DECA president, Tennis captain, Table tennis captain, Chess club officer and Senior class officer at his high school, and has previously volunteered with local charities and nonprofit organizations.

Tejas is a firm believer in the power of positivity and the importance of treating others with kindness and respect. He hopes to inspire others to live by these values and to use their talents and skills to make a positive impact in the world.

ANNA SACHDEVA, High School Senior

Anna Sachdeva is a young leader with a deep passion for making a positive impact in her community. Following the passing of her grandmother, Anna was inspired to create change and find ways to connect with others. She founded the Minnesota Chapter of Letters for Rose, an organization that seeks to bring joy and companionship to elderly individuals in care facilities.

With Anna's leadership, the organization has delivered numerous letters to nursing home residents, bringing a smile to their faces and brightening their day. Anna's dedication and commitment to helping others has made a profound difference in the lives of those around her.

In addition to her work with Letters for Rose, Anna is an advocate for various causes that affect individuals in our community. She is dedicated to raising awareness about important issues and is able to bring people together to find solutions.

Anna's long-term goals include attending a four-year university to study Neuroscience, followed by attending medical school. She hopes to become a physician and provide care to patients during a vulnerable time in their lives. Anna's desire to make a difference in the lives of others is both inspiring and admirable, and her dedication to serving her community is a testament to her strong values and compassionate heart.

SHANEN CORLETT, Citizen Volunteer

Shanen Corlett is a respected community leader and volunteer, known for her deep commitment to public safety in the city of Lakeville. As the President and Founder of the Lakeville Public Safety Foundation, Shanen has dedicated herself to raising funds and awareness for the vital work of first responders in our community.

Shanen's passion for supporting public safety initiatives goes back many years. Over time, she has developed a keen understanding of the challenges facing first responders, and has worked tirelessly to help address these challenges. In 2014, Shanen founded the Lakeville Public Safety Foundation, which has become a cornerstone of support for local public safety organizations.

What drives Shanen? A deep love for her community and a desire to give back in meaningful ways. She takes great pride in knowing that her efforts make a difference in the lives of those who benefit from the work of public safety organizations. Shanen is particularly inspired by the dedication and sacrifice of first responders, whom she regards with the utmost respect and admiration.

For Shanen, there is no greater honor than to serve as a partner to first responders in our community. She is deeply committed to supporting these brave men and women in any way she can, and is proud to see her community rallying around them as well. Through her leadership, dedication, and generosity of time, Shanen Corlett has set an inspiring example for others to follow, and has created a lasting impact on the city of Lakeville and its public safety organizations.

JON & CLINT SPOHN, Business Owners

Jon & Clint Spohn are fourth-generation owners and operators of HomeTown Auto, a reputable auto repair shop in Lakeville. They started their journey in the business at a young age, working alongside their father Kurt, and have continued to build on the company's legacy of providing high-quality and honest auto repair services at fair prices.

At HomeTown Auto, Jon and Clint prioritize customer satisfaction and employee well-being by fostering a friendly work environment and treating everyone like family. They are committed to giving back to the community that supports them and are actively involved in various charitable activities.

One of their most notable contributions is the annual Pumpkin party that they host for the community, where they give away over 300 pumpkins to the attendees. They also partner with other local businesses to make the event more extensive and exciting. Jon and Clint have also participated in fundraising efforts to help families in need, sponsor youth sports, and contribute to the Lakeville Rotary, where they make a global impact.

Their commitment to service and community involvement is admirable, and their generosity and leadership are essential to their success. Jon and Clint Spohn are a shining example of how business owners can make a positive impact on their communities.

